Rustling leaves . . . bright sunny days . . . students hurrying to class . . .
the strains of a familiar hymn . . . a soft word of prayer . . . Brewer Tower in the dusk . . . an inspiring thought . . . the vision of a beloved face . . . this is Lipscomb. And over all, Christ, the Light of Life . . . flooding our lives with the sunshine of His love.

His is the Light that never fails, never falters, never grows dim . . . but shining brightly, ever leads us on.

word

168617

May we trust not in our flickering, fading torches, but look unto Him whose glory, overshadowing us, is the Light of Life.

"O Light that follow'st all my way, I yield my flick'ring torch to Thee;
My heart restores its borrowed ray, That in Thy sunshine's glow its day
May brighter, fairer be."

We

MARY SHERRILL

Secretary to the Vice-President

A warm smile . . . a friendly word . . . an ear open to our troubles . . . a heart big enough to understand . . . never too busy to help . . . never too tired for another kind deed . . . always unassuming . . . always loyal to Lipscomb . . . in trouble, serene . . . in righteousness, steadfast . . . in all of life, devoted to her Lord . . . this is Mary.

Honor

S. C. BOYCE
Professor of History

Beloved for his prayers . . . respected for his honor . . . esteemed for his manner of life . . . always thoughtful . . . always deliberate . . . never wavering from his purpose . . . never failing to make it known . . . a bearing of dignity . . . a spirit of patience . . . kind in judgments . . . revering the church . . . loving its music . . . and above all, serving his Lord . . . this is Brother Boyce.

"I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

Religion

Daily Bible classes . . . morning chapel . . . evening devotionals . . . inspirational singing . . . earnest prayer . . . soul-stirring messages . . . Gospel meetings . . . Lecture Week.

At Lipscomb both faculty and students endeavor to let the Lord be the light of their lives. Reverence for the Holy Book and love for the Truth clearly set forth the place of religion here. We express the true Lipscomb spirit when we say with the psalmist: "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

"I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord." (Psalm 122: 1.)

"But the Lord is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him." (Habakkuk 2: 20.)

Ten-thirty . . . students hurrying down the walk . . . Harding Hall hushed in reverence . . . hymns posted . . . blending of kindred voices in song . . . heads and hearts bowed in prayer . . . reading of the Scriptures . . . this is the heart of Lipscomb.

Chapel becomes synonymous with Lipscomb in the minds and lives of all who love it. Five mornings every week we assemble reverently in Harding Hall to give our devotion to God. We worship, touched, and inspired to follow more closely in the footsteps of our Master. Purer in heart . . . firmer in purpose . . . stronger in faith . . . humbler in spirit, we leave a chapel service at Lipscomb.

"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth. . ."
(Ecclesiastes 12: 1.)

CLAY NICKS—"Tricky" . . . made a hit with the crowd . . . a rookie at the game . . . became more of an asset as the season went on.

A tense moment in a big game

SPORTS

In spite of the loss of material to the Armed Forces, the 1944 basketball season was a commendable one. With only two players left from last season and two regulars of this season being inducted into the Army, the Bisons, notwithstanding, showed the true Lipscomb spirit of loyalty and sportsmanship.

"He's the captain of our team"

The team, playing outstanding service teams such as Camp Campbell, Smyrna, and the Classification Center in addition to regular college games, was a speedy bunch of boys built around an excellent center. Perhaps the most thrilling game of the season was the second try against Vanderbilt in their own gym. After leading most of the time, the fighting Bisons were taken by a margin of five points.

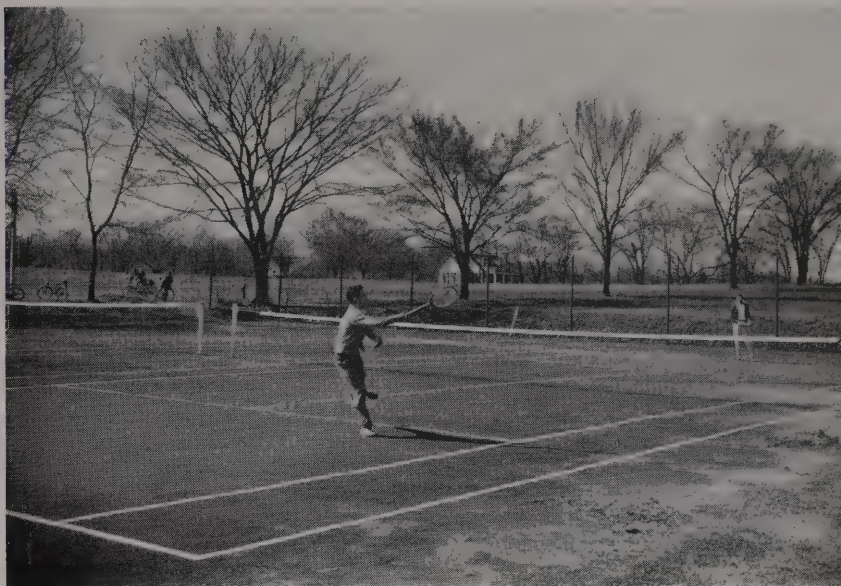

This season proved again that Lipscomb boys can succeed in spite of all difficulties.

NANCY RICHMOND

Joe Jones and his championship Vikings football team

In the past Lipscomb has gained a fine reputation for her excellent intramural program. This year's program has but added to that reputation. Beginning soon after school opened in September, the activities, under the direction of Fessor Boyce, included softball, touch football, basketball, free-throw tournament, and baseball. As usual, basketball was the chief interest of the season, with several varsity stars being discovered among the intramural teams. Keen competition, fine sportsmanship, and the ability to smile, win or lose—all had a vital part in the 1943-44 sports year.

GOLF-BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

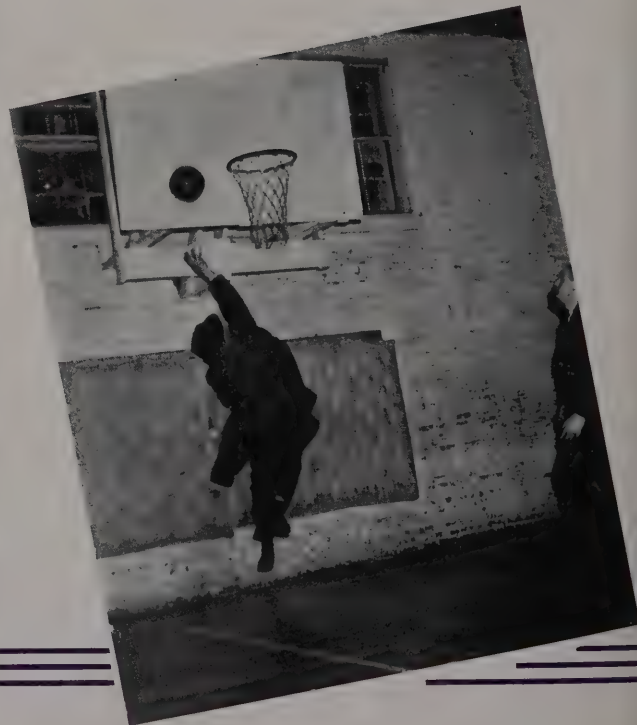

For the first time in the history of the intramural program one of the major contests was won by a student of the elementary school. Billy Bradshaw, a sixth-grade student, was the winner in the boys' division of the golf-basketball tournament. Boys in the college, high school, and elementary school participated in this event.

Miss Ruth Jones, a college senior, placed first in the girls' contest. This was no new accomplishment for Ruth, for she won this same honor last year. A silver basketball was awarded to each champ.

Intramurals play a vital part in Lipscombs' sport activities

ROGER CHURCH

The 1944 season saw the Mustangs send on the hardwood one of the scrappiest teams ever to represent Lipscomb High.

The boys, with a never say die spirit, after losing three fine players, developed their own stars under the guidance of Coach Alsup. Under the able leadership of Captain Jennings Davis, the Mustangs came within two points of the Eighth District Champs.

The team once again distinguished itself for fine sportsmanship under the purple and gold banner.

THE '44 MUSTANGS

MANAGER AL BARTLETT

In the tournament the Mustangs won for the second straight year recognition of their sportsmanship and fine spirit when Captain Davis received the most valuable player award as well as the best sportsmanship medal.

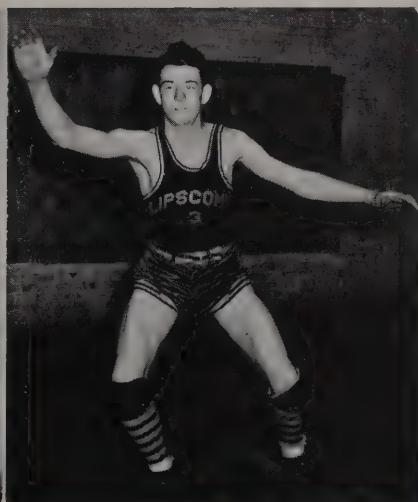

After defeating T. I. S. in the first round, the fighting Ponies went down under a strong East High team. It was, however, a victory in defeat in view of the awards which the team did receive.

Although this is only the second year that it has made its appearance in Lipscomb activities, golf has proved to be one of the most popular of all sports. A good clean game, played by good clean boys, it meets all the requirements for Christian recreation.
